GAMES TO DAY. Phila. Boston Cleveland Phisburg at Mash'ton, New Y'rk, Ind'p'lls. Chicago-

The Washingtons showed yesterlay what they could do in the, way of good and bad ball-playing. The first game was a model one. The boys hit timely and ran bases well. In the second they went to pieces and presented Phitadelphia with a game. Haddock did poorly enough, but had he been well supported the home nine would lave won. Sweeny has demonstrated his unfitness to play third. The baseball people are wondering why Sam Wise is not put there. It would greatly strengthen the team if Morrill returned to the bench for awhile, let Carney succeed him at first, put Wise on third and play either Shoch or Mack in right field. However, the boys have crawled out of last place, and they may do better as they are now placed.

The Grand Central Trotting Circuit The Grand Central Trotting Circuit-purses for 1889 will aggregate close to $250,000. Cleveland gives $24,000; Buffalo, $36,000; Rochester, $34,000; Poughkeepsie, $23,000 or more; Hart-ford, $33,000; Springfield, $27,000; Al-bany, $20,000; New York, $28,000 and Philadelphia $20,000. One of the classes agreed upon by the Stewards at Rochester is a purse for 5 year-olds.

The official programme of the circuit will soon be ready for publication.

"To play baseball on Sunday is to sin under heaven," sally sighs Mr. Leach, a Western preacher. And then Leach, a Western preacher. And then he shouts with flashing eyes:
"Did Daniel Webster play ball. Sunday? Did he read the Sunday newspapers? No. He stayed at home and read his bible. Think of it." If Sunday baseball had been played in Webster's time, perhaps "Webster" would have been dragged into it. How that great man would have deteriorted if he had played baseball. He would have sunk into oblivion."

Donovan's Derby victory at Epsomon Wednesday only confirms the generally-accepted opinion that he is far away the best three year-old in England. Up to date Donovan's winnings amount to $193,675, which not only bests Ormonde's record, but is the largest amount of stakes ever won by a race-horse.

Your work must be very arduous at "Your work must be very arduous at this season, Mr. Scorecard," remarked the fair young maiden to the able baseball reporter. "Well, yes, marm, it is," replied the journalist; "keeping the run of a baseball game is easy enough, and I aint kicking at pudding; but when I get to the office and have to put the derned thing into English grammar, the way the old man wants it—oh, that's what takes the edge off life."—[Puck.

Thick and Strong.

It has apparently come to stay. The Vigor is evidently a great aid to nature. — J. B. Williams, Floresville, Texas. —J. B. Williams, Floresville, Texas.

"I have used Ayer's Hair Vigor for the past four or five years and find it a most satisfactory dressing for the hair.
It is all I could desire, being harmless, causing the hair to retain its natural color, and requiring but a small quantity to render the hair easy to arrange."
Mrs. M. A. Balley, 9 Charles street,
Haverhill, Mass.

"I have been using Ayer's Hair Vigor for several years, and believe that it has caused my hair to retain its natural color."—Mrs. H. J. King, Dealer in
